

Maryland Connected & Automated Vehicles Working Group

Monday, 12/9/19

1:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Location: Banneker Room (2212), Stamp Student Union, University of Maryland, College Park

AGENDA
(Optional Pre-meeting) 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.	Static Demonstration - DADSS Vehicle Driver Alcohol Detection System for Safety (DADSS) is a partnership between the federal government (NHTSA) and the Automotive Coalition for Traffic Safety, which represents the world's leading automakers to test alcohol detection technology.
1:00 p.m.	Call Meeting to Order; Member Introductions Administrator Chrissy Nizer, MDOT MVA, Co-Chair Executive Director Jim Ports, MDTA, Co-Chair
1:15 p.m.	Update from the University of Maryland, Maryland Transportation Institute Thomas H. Jacobs, Director Center for Advanced Transportation Technology Lei Zhang, Ph.D. Herbert Rabin Distinguished Professor Director, Maryland Transportation Institute
1:30 p.m.	Panel Topic: Testing AV Technology: Balancing Innovation and Public Safety Moderator: Steve Kuciemba National ITS/CAV Director for WSP USA Andrew Woelfling Director of Public Policy and Government Relations, Argo AI Justine Kasznica Attorney at Law, Babst Calland Rasheed Walford Business Development/ East District Sales Manager, Local Motors
2:30 p.m.	Table Discussion
2:45 p.m.	DADSS Demo Review – Zero Deaths Maryland Dr. Timothy Kerns, Director Maryland Highway Safety Office, MDOT MVA
2:55 p.m.	Open Discussion of MDOT Status Updates & Subgroup Reports Chrissy Nizer, Moderator
3:30 p.m.	Wrap-up / next meeting